DIRECTORS OF GIRL'S CAMP TO BUY A SITE

CAMP FIRE GIRLS CAMP NORTH OF U. S. COAST GUARD STATION AT G. H.
Fund of $5,500 To Be Raised For The Purchase of the Property

The Camp Fire Girls' summer camp on the shore of Lake Michigan just north of the U. S. Coast Guard station at Grand Haven, will be made a permanent institution. The Grand Rapids Camp Fire chapter under whose direction the camp has been operated for the last two years has an option on the property. With in the next week the sum of $5,500 will be raised for the purpose of purchasing the land on which the camp is now located.

The amount to be raised will not only purchase the property under option but it will also be sufficient to insure the erection of a new camp dining hall. This will be necessary in order to accommodate the many additional girls who are expected to attend the camp next season.

The camp was started two years ago under the direction of Mrs. Florence Heintz and was immediately so successful that it was decided to continue it another year. Its second season began last July with a much larger attendance of girls than before. Many Grand Haven girls attended one or more of the camp sessions.

Although the camp is a Grand Rapids institution girls from Grand Haven and other places were admitted. The rates were reasonable and the good results to the girls who attended were many. The camp was excellently conducted and has proved a decided asset to Grand Haven from the beginning.

A UNIQUE EXHIBIT AT HOLLAND FAIR

LAKETOWN FARMER DISPLAYED OX YOKE WHICH WAS OVER 50 YEARS OLD

In the Laketown Farm Bureau exhibit could be found a curio of years ago, when travel was at the rate of two miles an hour on the highway instead of 40 or 50 miles according to the speed limit.

Ed Nyland of Laketown brought to the fair a hand-made ox-yoke that had done duty 50 years ago when the voice of Jno. H. Lemmen could be heard all over the field saying "Gee haw!" directing his ox team as he was following the plow.

3-YEAR-OLD OTTAWA TOT KILLED BENEATH THRESHER

Henry Jr., 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Saul, living five miles south of Grand Haven was instantly killed when he fell beneath a thresher on his father's farm. He was running besides the machine, fell and was thrown under and was crushed.

NOW ALLEGAN FAIR DIRECTORS GET CONSCIENCE COIN

PATRON SNEAKED INTO THE FAIR GROUNDS BUT IS SORRY

Allegan Gazette—Attacks of conscience resulting in surrender of criminals or restitution of money are not infrequent things in human affairs. Sometimes the worst as well as the least of wrong-doers give themselves up even after lone avoidance of arrest, simply because they can bear no longer the burden of guilt on their minds; and small sums of money which it might be presumed would be conveniently forgotten, as well as large ones which always would be in mind, are restored. A case of this sort came to the knowledge of Secretary Sequist of the county fair last week when he received a letter containing twenty-eight cents in postage stamps and the following letter: "Years ago I went to the fair without paying my fare. I have been ashamed and sorry every since, and so I am paying my fare in this letter. Unsigned." This is encouraging, yet if all the persons who have sneaked into the fair the past 25 years or so would thus refund, the society would be gainer by no small sum.

EXHIBITION GAME NEXT SATURDAY CENTRAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONS VS. HOLLAND INDEPENDENTS

A real treat is in store for the fans of Holland Saturday when Josh De Vore's Central League Champions of Grand Rapids are to meet the Holland Independents at water works park.

De Vore's team is practically the winner of the Central League pennant, and the fans Saturday are going to see the hit of the season when these two strong teams meet in Holland.

Don't forget, Saturday afternoon game called at 3:15.

COTTAGES AT MACATAWA WILL PROPERLY PROTECTED THIS YEAR

WATCHMEN WILL GUARD ALL THE SUMMER HOMES
Cottagers' Association Will Put a Stop to a Very Bad Practice

At a meeting of the Macatawa Park Cottagers' association the ban has been put on a bad practice that has been going on at the local resorts for some time.

Girls and boys of high school age in other years have made free with cottage owners' property entering with skeleton keys, using the electric lights, lighting grate fires and sitting down to a spread planned for the purpose.

These things have been happening often during the fall and winter, and upon one occasion Manager Swan Miller rounded up a large number of them and it was only on the promise that it would not occur again, that the affair was kept out of court and the parties of Holland not exposed.

Altho there is no dishonesty intended, it seems to have been a practice for some years back in which a skeleton key and an unlimited lot of nerve were the chief assets. Anyway the Cottagers Association have hired watchmen to guard the cottages and upon the door of the cottage of each one of the owners who belong to the association a large yellow card is placed upon which will be printed conspicuously the following words:

"This cottage is owned by a member of the Macatawa Park Cottagers association, and is under the protection of a private watchman."

The association has created a fund for this work not alone but to prosecute any persons trespassing on property where they have no business.

This no doubt will put an end to a bad practice that has been going on for some years.

TROOPERS ON HOT TRAIL OF THE FRUIT COONERS

STATE POLICE MAKING THE ROUNDUP OF RAIDERS OF OTTAWA FRUIT FARMS

Constabulary Officers Won't Permit Any Settlement With the Fruit Growers

The Michigan State police, known as the state constabulary, are taking a hand in putting a stop to a practice of fruit cooning which has been going on in fruit sections of the state. Mingling their duties of wiping out illegal liquor traffic and manufacture, the state troopers are patrolling the fruit sections and are arresting those who are annoying the fruit growers.

The state police accept no apology and will stand for no settlements between the grower and the invaders if they are caught. Trooper Marsden and Olson of the state police arrived at the county seat on Monday and were present at the arraignment of two Coopersville men whom they arrested for taking grapes at the Parkhurst vineyards near Spring Lake Saturday. The two men were Charles Wolford and Erroy Wolford. They paid fines of $10 and $2.85 costs each in Justice Wachs' court.

While patrolling the roads Saturday Troopers Marsden and Olson came upon difficulty at the C. A. Keefer farm. The owner of the place was settling at the rate of $5 each, it is said, with Wm. Patterson and Chester Brockway both of Gr. Haven, who were alleged to have taken grapes from the place. The troopers required the grower to refund the settlement money and the two men were required to appear in Justice court in Muskegon Heights, where they paid a fine and costs amounting to $23.

The state troopers police authority extends over all counties and in the cities, although they seldom operate in the city unless requested to assist the police. Their authority permits them to operate independently, however, if they desire.

HOLLAND IS TO HAVE DOLLAR DAY

The merchants of Holland have always put up a dollar day that has a great deal of merit and oodles of bargains.

Watch this paper next week for day and date and also the bargains that are going to be offered.

There will be some surprises in store.

HOPE COLLEGE BECOMING QUITE COSMOPOLITAN

TWO CHINAMEN AND THREE INDIANS ATTEND

A great many different nationalities attend Hope College with the Dutch no doubt predominating.

But the studentry of Hope has become still more cosmopolitan since two Chinamen have dropped in from the Orient, one named Wong, and the other named Wu. Although these gentlemen are queless and eat with a knife and fork instead of chop sticks, they come from the Mandrin country just the same.

The three Indians no doubt will have a war whoop in their system when Hope stages some of its football games, but at present they are demuded of paint and feathers and live in a regular house instead of in a tepee as did their forefathers.

Hope students however are giving them a cordial welcome and the red and yellow students are proving to be studious, hard-working additions to home studentry.

TESTING CATTLE PREVENTS EXHIBITION AT THE FAIR

FEW WERE ON EXHIBITION IN HOLLAND THIS YEAR

While Holland Fair was a success in every particular the cattle exhibit was practically a failure.

There are a good many things that contribute to this cause.

In the first place farm labor is high and for that reason it takes money to bring a cow, a calf or a bull to the fair, and keep them there for three days.

The premium money, even if one is received is more than eaten up by the maintenance expense and the entering of the stock.

An added expense not figured on before is governed by the state law, namely that a cow for instance shall be tuberculin tested before the animal is allowed to enter the fair exhibition building to mingle with other animals.

This would cost the farmer one dollar a head which is an added expense beside the other incidentals.

That the testing has something to do with keeping the cattle away is evident from the fact that sheep do not have to be tested and the entries made on sheep was very large, surpassing that of any other livestock placed on exhibition.

DISEASE CARRIERS BARRED FROM ALL PUBLIC MEETINGS

MAY NOT ATTEND SCHOOL CHURCH, THEATER OR PUBLIC ASSEMBLIES

To Apply To Those Not Sick Themselves But Who Carry Diseases

Steps now being taken toward the control of communicable disease carriers and the consequent cutting down of epidemics of preventable diseases will materially raise Michigan's preventable disease standing in comparison with other states, according to Dr. R. M. Olin, state health commissioner.

At a recent meeting of the advisory council of health, the personnel of which includes Dr. Guy L. Kiefer, of Detroit, president, Dr. James G. Turner, Houghton, vice president, Dr. C. C. Slemons, Grand Rapids, Dr. Frank M. Gowdy, St. Joseph, and Attorney Leland W. Carr, Lansing, a regulation recommended by Dr. Olin, as provided for under the Public Acts of 1919, was adopted for the purpose of curbing disease within the state.

"Any carrier," reads the regulation now being distributed to physicians and health officers throughout Michigan, "of a dangerous communicable disease that under the rules and regulations of the Michigan Department is subject to quarantine or isolation shall be isolated or quarantined as provided in said rules and regulations and shall not be permitted to attend any school, church, theater, or other public assemblage, or otherwise come in contact with the public. The term 'carrier' applies to any person harboring the virulent organisms of a communicable disease. Though the carrier may not be sick himself, may spread the virulent organisms which may be the cause of severe epidemics."

Robert Telling, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Telling, died Tuesday afternoon at about 4 o'clock at the Holland Hospital, where he had been taken to submit to an operation for appendicitis.

FERRIS DISCUSSES NATIONAL ISSUES IN HOLLAND

LEAGUE OF NATIONS OVERSHADOWS EVERY OTHER QUESTION IN WORLD TODAY

Calls It Tragedy That This Issue Could Be Dragged Into Politics

A good sized audience greeted former governor W. N. Ferris when he spoke in the W. L. C. rooms on Tuesday afternoon. The "good grey governor" was enthusiastically applauded many times in the course of his speech and he seemed to have his audience with him from start to finish.

C. A. Bigge presided at the meeting, and John Vandersluis served as singing leader. The songs were full of spirit. John VanVynen furnished some splendid instrumental music.

Mr. Jarvis, candidate for congress in the Fifth district on the democratic ticket, spoke a few words endorsing the candidacy of Mr. Ferris and promising to return to Holland later to tell about his own campaign.

Governor Ferris prefaced his remarks with a vigorous statement about non-voters, whom he called slackers. He said if he had his way he would take away the vote from those who failed to exercise it. Turning to national issues he admitted that Wilson had made mistakes, some very serious ones, but so had Lincoln declared Mr. Ferris, and so had every other man who was not a nonentity. He recounted the constructive legislation passed since 1913 and issued a challenge to point to any other period of eight years in American history during which so much constructive legislation had been passed.

"I have at home," he said "a bundle of newspaper cuttings taken from the papers during Lincoln's second campaign. The average American today who reveres Lincoln would shudder to read them. In them the great American is reviled and called everything that hatred could think of. Today the same thing is happening to Wilson. Twenty-five years from now Wilson's utterances will be classed with those of Lincoln."

Mr. Ferris came out strongly for the League of Nations. He declared it was the one great issue in the world today. He deplored that it had been possible to drag it into politics. He said if he had been president he would have accepted the reservations, not because he thought them essential but because he considered the league of overshadowing importance and because he believed that the whole thing would develop into something still greater in course of time when hatreds were put aside. He read Article X and asked what menace there was in it. He read Article XVI about the international court of justice and showed that the present so-called Root plan on which certain republicans seem to rely much is contemplated in the League of Nations itself. He quoted former President Taft to the effect that he would have voted for the League as submitted without reservations.

Mr. Ferris scored Newberryism and he touched on many of the present issues often with a wealth of sarcasm and humor that made his address highly entertaining. He declared it was a deep misfortune that Michigan was one-sidedly republican, just as it would be a deep misfortune to have Michigan one-sidedly Democratic. He laid to this fact much of the waste and inefficiency in state government.

As always Mr. Ferris spoke eloquently and entertainingly. His sincerity and earnestness were patent to friend and foe both.

Miss Kittie M. Doesburg will return from her vacation this week and will start her class in music net week.

Undoubtedly the most valuable cargo that has ever come into Spring Lake, Ottawa Co. on wagon or auto truck was brought into that village a few days ago by Capt. M. H. McCluer. It consisted of a load of foxes for the Parkhurst fox farm and was valued at $12,500. Capt. McCluer has a brand new auto truck and the fox cargo made a fine initiation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Zalsman have returned from a short automobile trip over the West Michigan Pike. They also visited friends at Big Rapids.

OUR TURTLES ON PIKE ROAD; NEAR FATALITY

Mrs. Christina Carrier and her brother-in-law, Claude Carrier, were rather badly hurt Wednesday night near West Olive detour, when the car in which they were riding skidded off the road and turned over. Clarence Carrier and the injured woman's husband were also riding in the car. The former was driving, and escaped with few injuries; the latter riding in the rear seat with his wife escaped with slight bruises.

The party had been at West Olive and were driving home in their Ford touring car when the accident occurred. There were no witnesses, but the evidence indicates that the car skidded off of the concrete and ran fully 150 feet along the shoulder before it went into the ditch and turned over on its side.

At shortly after seven o'clock J. Juistema and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Orrie J. Sluiter drove along the road from the south and discovered the wreck. They immediately alighted and rendered instant aid. Mrs. Carrier, who had been thrown from the car was cut about the face and chin and was unconscious. C. Carrier was badly hurt about the head and face and was also unconscious. The county clerk's party and other cars which came up took in the injured and rushed them to Elizabeth Hutton Memorial hospital in Grand Haven. Medical attention was given the cases immediately and the next morning it was not believed that the injuries would prove fatal to any of the party.

The car was badly damaged in the wreck. Prompt rescue on the part of the passersby no doubt saved several lives.

COUNCIL DECIDES ON A NEW ROUTE FOR PIKE LINE

The paved trunk road through the city that is to be built by the state in accordance with an agreement entered into some months ago was routed over River avenue and 17th street by the common council at the session Wednesday evening. The road had been routed at first over First avenue, but petitions were represented to the council containing about a thousand names, asking that the route be changed.

HOLLAND ARTIST WILL BE NINETY IN OCTOBER

Joseph Warner, Holland's veteran landscape painter, will be ninety years old on the fifth day of October but in spite of that he not only reads very readily with the aid of a pair of glasses, but still paints pictures daily. In view of the fact that a painter needs better eyesight than others, in order to get the correct tints of color on his canvas, this feat of Mr. Warner is nothing short of wonderful, it is believed, and is probably not matched by any other artist in the state of equal age.

Mr. Warner during the past year or two has painted several portraits of prominent Holland men who have passed away and whose families wanted enlarged likenesses of them. This work has been done by the near-nomagenarian by taking ordinary photographs of the subjects and copying the portraits from that. In this way he has secured some very good likenesses. He is now at work on the portrait of a Holland man who died not long ago and he expects to do others after this one is finished.

Mr. Warner also still retains his interest in landscape, and in between the work of portrait painting he still takes his easel out and spreads scenes in the environs of Holland upon the canvas.

Aside from his interest in art, Mr. Warner is deeply interested in spiritualism. In this age when millions of people all over the world are adherents of this cult, the Holland artist is but one of many. But he already was a believer in spiritualism thirty or forty years before the present wave of spiritualism spread over the country. He has during the past thirty or forty years attended a considerable number of seances and his stories of "materializations" are full of interest.

FORMER BUSINESS MAN DIES AT THE HOLLAND HOSPITAL

One of Holland's respected citizens and former business men passed away Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock when death came to Louis Schoon at Holland Hospital. Mr. Schoon had been in the hospital for some time and was operated on some weeks ago. He had been ill for about a year.

Mr. Schoon was born in the Netherlands 68 years ago. At the age of three years he came to this country with his parents and he has made Holland his home ever since. He had a large circle of friends and was prominent in church circles in Holland for many years.

At one time he served as alderman for the second ward, his home being in that ward on West Seventh street. For about a quarter of a century he served as superintendent of the Sunday School of the 1st Reformed church, and he resigned that position finally because of failing health. At the time of his death he was still holding the office of elder of that church.

Mr. Schoon married Miss Margaret Van Dyke. She and four children survive him, Mrs. H. G. Pelgrim, jr., Mrs. John Arendshorst, John J. Schoon and Louis William Schoon; also one brother Peter M. Schoon of this city.

Mr. Schoon's business life was devoted for many years to the tanning business. At one time he conducted a tannery of his own on West 7th street, and for many years he was an employee of the Cappon-Bertsch Leather Company. After retiring from the business he served the 1st State Bank for a number of years.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the 1st Reformed church, Rev. S. Vander Werf and Rev. James Weyer officiating. Interment took place in the Phipps Home Cemetery.

IS PRESENTED WITH PIANO AT THE FAIR

A Bush & Lane Piano was given away at the Holland Fair on Wednesday and the fortunate recipient of the gift of the Holland Fair Association was Mr. G. Wyngaarden, 214 West Fourteenth street. Mr. Wyngaarden held a ticket numbered 164,282.

He was on hand to receive the gift and he immediately became the center of interest on the part of thousands who had gone to the fair to see the presentation made. There was a great deal of interest in this feature of the fair and the giving away of piano probably helped to boost the attendance record to a great extent.

AUTO STRIKES TREE ON NORTH SIDE

When Henry Van Kampen sr., who lives north of the city was going home after having done business here, he ran his Ford into a tree near the North Side grocery. He was dodging some two trucks and then was confronted with another car. Trying to evade this one he collided with a tree. The car turned over and Van Kampen was thrown to the street and had his back severely wrenched. He was taken to his home and is now confined to his bed. The Ford was taken to the Holleman-Deweerd Garage and a new windshield was replaced and some fenders straightened.

DEMOCRATS HOLD COUNTY CONVENTION AT GRAND HAVEN

Tuesday afternoon the Ottawa county Democratic convention was called for the purpose of selecting delegates from Ottawa to attend the Democratic state convention. But that was not the only business which the party leaders had in mind. They had hopes of strengthening the party organization in the county, in view of the important presidential campaign approaching. There were predictions by some of the optimistic that the normal Republican majority was likely to be cut into and that some of the candidates on the ticket might be elected in this county.

The chairman of the day was C. E. Misner of Grand Haven and the delegates selected from Holland to go to the state convention at Lansing were Louis Vandenberg, John G. Damstra, C. A. Bigge, Bert Slag and Ernest Brooks. Holland township, Nicholas Hoffman.

OTTAWA COUNTY PRISONER GETS OUT OF JACKSON

Daniel A. King, a prison inmate working on one of the state farms disappeared Monday it was learned at checking up time Monday night. King was serving a 5 year sentence from Ottawa county for burglary having been sentenced June 1918. He is an electrician by occupation. A reward of $100 has been offered for his capture. King was captured by the Ottawa sheriff's officers on Sheldon road in 1918 and sent over for burglarizing summer cottages.

Mrs. Melissa Huff, mother of Mrs. L. Kline, visited at Otsego, Wayland and Grand Rapids.

ZEELAND CHURCH NEARLY FREE FROM ALL DEBTS

At a meeting held by the 3rd Chr. Ref. church congregation of Zeeland an effort was made to raise by voluntary subscription a sum sufficient to pay its entire church debt. The pastor of this church is Rev. D. R. Drukter, formerly of Holland. This church had only a very small debt at the time the elegant parsonage on State street was bought and the effort now made was to remove all encumbrance with a future view toward building a church edifice on its property, also located on South State street. Of the seventy odd families of which this church is composed about one-half were represented at the meeting and the effort was very successful. Although the entire amount desired was not subscribed, the balance, it is thought, would be subscribed before the canvass has been completed.

DECK HANDS HAD WEAK STOMACHS

Captain Morgan of the steamer "City of Grand Rapids" did not care to abdicate his position Friday night when two men who had taken too much stomach medicine tried to take the boat away from him. It was not so much a mutiny as a miniature riot on the part of the two hands. But Captain Morgan thought that on the whole the vessel and passengers would be safer in his own hands than under the control of the two rowdy ones.

The men were John Sunski and William Borak, both deck hands. They got drunk on Wine of Pepsin, a stomach medicine which is said to contain 25 per cent alcohol. The men must have extremely weak stomachs; at least they had provided themselves with a goodly supply of the medicine, ten pints of it being found on their persons. They appeared before Justice Brusse Friday morning and each paid fines and costs of $14.60.

THREE SPEEDERS PAY FINES IN THE LOCAL COURTS

Three speeders were gathered in Thursday as the day's crust of persons who came into conflict with the city's traffic ordinance. Even though the Holland fair had put pep into the auto drivers, ordinance was in force just as usual and speeders are not given any leeway.

The three gathered in Thursday were: William Horn, going 27 miles on East 16th street. Horn is a taxi driver. It was his second offense and Justice Van Schelven assessed him $11.70.

Tim Vandenberg, a farmer, was arrested for going 24 miles on East 16th-st. Justice Van Schelven let him off with a fine of $8.70. Marinus Dornbos also went 24 miles on E. 16th street and his fine also was $8.70. He was arraigned before Justice Den Herder.

ZEELAND MAN GETS BUICK AUTOMOBILE

All last week the fair directors were having prize drawings of all kinds.

The first day a Bush & Lane Piano was given away; it was won by H. Wyngaarden of Holland.

Thursday a Holland furnace was given away which was won by John Van Dyke of Grand Haven.

The last and great event was the giving away of a Buick automobile which created considerable excitement and brought a large crowd of fair patrons who felt they might be the lucky recipient.

A man from Zeeland, by the name of John De Free rolled off with the prize, his number being 6297. As luck would have it the prizes are pretty well distributed about the county, Grand Haven getting one, Zeeland getting another and Holland also sharing in the drawing.

Harry Vandenberg former Sentinel employee, who has been in the U. S. service in the Canal Zone for the past few years, arrived in Holland Thursday morning, coming to the end of a 3,700 mile trip from Colon, Panama where he was employed until his return. On the way back he stopped at San Juan, Porto Rico. The ocean trip from Colon to New York was 2,700 miles.

ZEELAND CHRISTIAN SCHOOL IS NOW FREE FROM DEBT

The enrollment in the School for Christian Instruction in Zeeland now numbers nearly 200, and the beginners now number 200 and the beginning on previous year.

Through the efforts of the committee in charge, the society has this year been successful in liquidating the debt remaining on the school building so that now the society is debt free. At the last annual meeting held during August this society raised by voluntary subscriptions a sum of $1200.

The Ladies Aid society donated the sum of $400; and more recently the Ladies Aid society of the First Chr. Ref. Church increased this with $100, while the Willing Workers contributed $165 toward a piano fund.

TRAVEL TWELVE HUNDRED MILES ON MOTORCYCLE

Circling around Lake Michigan in a motorcycle side car is the unique way two Holland young men had of spending their vacation. The trip lasted eleven days and the journey was a total of approximately 1,200 miles.

The two men are John Dunnewind and Marion Berkoski, both employees of the Winstrom Electric Co. Dunnewind owns a motorcycle with a side car and the young men decided to see something of their native state. From Holland they traveled to Grand Rapids and from there on over the Mackinaw Trail to Mackinaw. Crossing the straits to St. Ignace, they saw a good deal of that section of the state. They had a kodak with them and took numerous pictures, getting good views of such places as the famous Atratin Falls, near Munising and of Pictured Rock on the Lake Superior coast.

In the upper peninsula the young travelers followed the Roosevelt Trail for quite a distance, and for long periods they passed through the wilderness, seeing no human habitation except occasionally a lumber camp. They stopped three days in Munising to see the beauty spots in that neighborhood.

From St. Ignace they passed thru Newberry, Sene, Munising and other towns, then went to Menominee and through Wisconsin to Chicago, thence along the West Michigan Pike home.

The trip took just eleven days, and a remarkable feature about it is that they did not pump up their tires in all that distance. They had no tire trouble of any kind and had only one slight accident to another part of the car in going over very rough roads in one section of the upper Michigan wilderness. They consumed 34 gallons of gas and two gallons of lubricating oil. They carried a tent and cooking utensils and camped all the way, steering clear of hotel and restaurant bills.

Among the out of town people who attended the fair Thursday were Mr. Irvin Crofoot and family, of Muskegon; Vernon Bottom of Grand Rapids.

It's a man's job to keep up with Michigan

In the passing of a decade, almost, Michigan, by a phenomenal growth, has leaped from comparative industrial obscurity to a commanding place among the commercial centers of the nation.

Hand in hand with this expansion, has grown the demand for telephone service in Michigan. Some idea of the problems confronting the Michigan State Telephone Company as the result of this advance in industry and population may be gained from consideration of these facts:

In 1910 the state had a population of 2,810,000, served by 143,300 of our telephones, or one for every 19½ persons.

In 1920, it is estimated from the available census returns, the population is 3,210,000, a growth of approximately 400,000, and is served by 292,851 of our telephones, meaning one for each 11 persons.

Therefore, while the population has grown 14.2 per cent, the number of telephones has grown 104.3 per cent. The company has, in the face of war conditions, material and labor shortage and skyrocketing costs, more than kept pace with Michigan's growth.

It has been necessary, in order to meet the myriad problems confronting the telephone service, for the company to make surveys and estimates, years in advance, of the volume and direction of population and industrial growth in order to intelligently build to meet it. All this company's resources and efforts have been used to meet Michigan's requirements, as indicated in these surveys.

Had the 14.2 per cent increase in population been evenly distributed the problem would have been simplified, but this growth has been greater at some points than at others. There have been times, therefore, when the surveys did not compare with requirements and times when the engineer's estimates could not be met.

But the telephone people, facing these and many other obstacles, carried on and are still carrying on, determined that their future efforts shall exceed even those of the past.

They are anxious to have the people they serve know what they are doing to solve these problems and that despite all difficulties they are determined to make Michigan's telephone service the best obtainable anywhere.

Children	1293	1884	427
Vehicles	368	1287	363
Grand Stand	892	1255	775

Above is found a comparative statement of the attendance of the fair for the past three years, and it can readily be seen that the gate receipts far surpass any previous year during that time, and in looking over the books it is evident that more people attended the fair this year than at any time in the history of the exhibition which was organized thirty-six years ago.

The total cash taken in at the gate and grandstand is as follows:

Wednesday	$2,636.30
Thursday	$5,121.40
Friday	$1,650.45
Concessions, approx.	$2,500.00
Total	$11,908.15

Not alone have the gate receipts shown a wonderful increase, but the number of concession men who applied for privileges with shows, stands, and other fair diversions, nearly tripled in numbers, in fact the fair association was crowded for room and the Getz building had to be moved to a different location in order to accommodate the rapidly growing demand for space along the midway and the main thoroughfares in the grounds.

Formerly $800 in concession money was considered big. This year however the amount will be approximately $2500, says Treasurer Benjamin Browner.

President Austin Harrington, Secretary Arendshorst and Treasurer Browner together with the rest of the directors of the fair are elated beyond measure over the success of the exhibition.

There are a great many things that contributed to the success of the fair. Of course a fair cannot be successful unless the weather is there, and if the weather man could make a better brand than what he sent over to Holland during fair week we would like to see it. With the exception of a few showers at a time when no damage could possibly be done, the days were sun shiny and ideal; the dust was laid and just enough rain fell to put the track in good going condition. It seemed to everyone that all the officers were right on their toes all the time. They gave the show including many fine features and deserved the patronage.

Holland also backed the project this year better than ever before. All citizens had a good word to say about the exhibition held in their own town. The city practically closed up for a day to take part in the doings. Holland business men were there with the exhibits and their good will.

Hamilton and Zeeland were not far behind both towns closing up together tighter than a drum on Thursday, the big day in order that its citizens might attend the Holland show. It is said that the line of rigs from the rural district south and east was stringing along miles and miles and it was a veritable parade.

The fair also received oodles of publicity and the drawing contests no doubt also added materially to the success of the Holland fair. Nothing went wrong, everything seemed to dove-tail and all these factors combined, made the Holland fair the biggest financial success ever experienced in the history of the organization.

An exceptionally fine racing program was pulled off at the Holland fair on Wednesday before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the grand stand and before thousands of others who lined the fences along the track. The track was in ideal condition. The little rain of the morning had put it into good shape, and the rain of Wednesday evening also was more of a benefit than a disadvantage.

The starting judge Wednesday was Russell Ellis, the superintendent of speed Seth Nibbelink, the presiding judges were John Murray, John Edison and John De Pree; the timers were Casper Belt and John Kleis, and the caller was James Nibbelink. In the first event, a 2:30 trot, Sax Axford, b. g., by Axtell with John Boone as owner and driver, won the purse of $250. The details of the race are:

Mary Sidmont, Sturtevant	3	2
Billy Templeton, Moon	2	3
Tramel, Reymers	4	4
Todd's Lammie, Todd	5	5
Time—2:34½, 2:26½, 2:26½.

In the second event, first place was won by Robert J. Wilkes, owned by John Hossein of Hartford, Mich., and driven by J. Kaiser. This was also a 2:30 pace with a $250 purse. The race in detail:

Robt. J. Wilkes	1	1
Echo, Jas. Higgins	2	2
Somewood, J. Tobin	3	3
Peter F. Jay Nichols	5	4
Eddie Lee, J. Mol	4	5
Time—2:20½, 2:19½, 2:20½.

The third event, a special race for a purse of $75 with mile heats, was won by Kimme owned and driven by Gil Van Hoven of Zeeland. The details—

Kimme, Van Hoven	1	1
Star Direct, VanderMeer	3	2
Sliver owner Ray Wells	2	3
Time—2:37, 2:39½, 2:38.

Three good racing programs were pulled off at the Holland Fair on Thursday. It was the banner day of the week, so far as racing was concerned and the contests were hard fought by the fast steppers from the several states that had been brought together here. The purses for two of the races were for $300 each and for the third it was $250. The track was in ideal condition.

The first event was a 2:18 pace, with mile heats, for a purse of $300. It was won by Alice Gordon, owned by Jay Nichols and driven by John Boone. The details of the race:

Alice Gordon, Nichols	1	1
Elbrino Belle, Van Dusen	3	2
Nellie Chimes, Keller	2	5
Lena B., Hitchcock	6	6
Max Rottler, Mead	5	4
Bessie Hartley, ong	4	3
Time—2:20½, 2:19½, 2:19½.

In the second race, a 2:18 trot, mile heats, with a purse for $300, it was necessary to run the five heats in order to determine the winner. The race was won by Colonel H., owned by Charles Long and driven by W. Russell. The details:

Colonel H., Long	3	2	1	1
Sam Axford, Boone	1	1	2	4
Carl, Tobin	2	3	4	3
Butler Watts, Mead	4	4	3	2
Time—2:23½, 2:24½, 2:21½, 2:22½, 2:24½.

The third event was a 2:22 pace with a $250 purse, and was won by Punch Bowl, owned and driven by C. W. Spicer of Belding. The details:

Punch Bowl, Spicer	1	1
Echo, Higgins	2	3
McGlen, Spicer	4	2
Sandy, France	3	5
Patchie, Akom & Durand	5	4
Maxine, C. E. Adams	6	6
Time—2:19½, 2:20½, 2:19½.

There were two spirited races pulled off at the Holland fair on Friday, the closing day of the exhibit, and again thousands of people watched the fast steppers go around the track. The promise of S. Nibbelink in charge of the racing this year, that there would be more horses available for good contests than anyone could reasonably expect was kept. Some of the finest animals in Michigan and in several other states were on hand to help make good sport for the crowd.

The first race Friday was a free for all. It was for a purse of $250 and was in mile heats. There were five contenders for the purse and three heats were run to decide the winner. The race was won by D. M. B. owned by R. Fawley of La Porte, Ind. The details:

D. M. B., Fawley	1	1
Lady May, Spicer	2	2
Punch Bowl, Spicer	3	3
Lady Brino, Fawley	4	4
Patchie D., Akom & Durand	5	5
Time—2:15½, 2:14½, 2:15½.

The second event was a special race for a purse of $150 with mile heats. In this race four heats were required to decide on the winner. Eddie Lee carried off the prize. This horse is owned by John VanderKolk of Hamilton, Michigan. The details:

Eddie Lee, VanderKolk	2	1	1
Rosewood, Kuite	1	2	4
Queen Vitalis, Nicholas	3	3	2

There was probably even more interest in the bicycle race at the Holland fair Friday afternoon than in the horse races. The bicycle race had been advertised long in advance and a great many young men took an interest in it either as participants or as spectators. Each racer had its crowd of supporters in the grandstand and along the track to cheer him on.

There were six starters in the bicycle race. The race was won by James Boer. Young Boer is some speeder on his bicycle as is shown by the fact that this is the second time in the last couple of months that he has won a $58 bicycle. Some time ago at a picnic of the Holland Shoe company, a bicycle was put up as a prize for the winner of a race from Jenison Park to Holland and he won that race too.

The race Friday afternoon was a two and a half mile stretch around the race track. Boer coming in first under the wire was awarded a $58 bicycle as a prize. Second honors went to D. Schipper who received a $5 Solar gas lamp. Adrian Daane came in for third honors, the prize for which was a $4.25 bicycle tire; while fourth prize went to John Ver Hof, who won a $2 bicycle horn. There was also great interest in a motorcycle race. This race called for five miles, ten times around the track. There were six starters and they put up a good exhibition of speed.

The winner was Bill Sackers, who got $15 in cash out of it. Second money was $10 in cash and this was landed by Andy Vos. The third prize was a five spot which was carried away by Edward Koningsburg. There were no other prizes, but the fourth place was won by Mr. Buttes and fifth place by C. Israel.

TWO ESCAPE DEATH AS CAR GOES INTO THE DITCH

Fred and Ed Scales, both of Saugatuck, who were on their way to work in Muskegon, went over the 20 foot embankment at the Warber ditch between Holland and Grand Haven on the Pike. Both men escaped death by an exceedingly narrow margin, but both were so badly battered and bruised that they were rushed to Elizabeth Hatton Memorial hospital in Grand Haven for treatment, by motorists who came along the road immediately after the accident.

The surgical examination revealed that Fred Scales had suffered a fracture of his left arm. His mouth was badly cut and he was bruised about the body considerably. Ed Scales was rather badly bruised about the head and face and had both ankles sprained. Neither of the two men are believed to have suffered dangerous hurts.

According to the story secured from the injured men, they came to grief through an attempt to dodge and Airdale dog belonging to Wacker who lives near the Warber ditch. The effort was all in vain, however, as the dog was struck and killed. The car veered out of the road and after bumping the fence for many feet, plunged through the barrier and down an embankment fully twenty-four feet high, rolling over and over.

The plunge of the car was arrested temporarily by the concrete facing over the culvert, but it soon dropped from its lodging place and settled in an up-turned position over the little creek or ditch which runs through.

The two men although both of them were injured, managed to crawl out to safety. Within a very short time there were many cars on the grounds and the injured men were taken into a car and hurried into Grand Haven for medical treatment. The men were carrying several bushels of peaches in the car and these were scattered over the ground for many feet. The wrecked car was still in the ditch and many motorists from Holland and Grand Haven made a trip out to the scene to see it. The machine turned completely over at least twice as it went over the high embankment. The heavy fence which had been erected as a guard against such accident, was torn out for a distance of several yards on the west side of the road.

ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE OF WIFE DESERTION

Sheriff and Mrs. C. J. Dornbos reached home Wednesday from California accompanied by Peter DeVries of Holland, who is wanted for wife desertion. The sheriff found DeVries working in Los Angeles where he had a good job and was well thought of, but was compelled to go to Sacramento, the capitol for the hearing of the extradition. DeVries' employer requested the sheriff to hurry DeVries' case through as rapidly as possible as he was anxious to have him back in his employ in as short a time as possible.

De Vries was arraigned Thursday morning before Justice Van Schelven. In default of $1,200 bail he was taken to the Ottawa county jail where he will have to stay until the October term of circuit court when his case will come up for trial.

BUSINESS MAN DIES AT THE AGE OF SIXTY-NINE

Holland lost another business man Monday evening when death came to Mr. I. Muller, for many years closely affiliated with the business interests of the city. Mr. Muller passed away at his home at 232 West 16th street at about six o'clock after an illness of about eight weeks. Death was the result of paralysis, Mr. Muller having suffered a stroke some time ago.

Mr. Muller was born in the Netherlands on September 13, 1851. He came to America in 1868 and settled in Danforth, Ill. Ten years after his arrival in America, in 1878, he was united in marriage to Miss Martha Vanden Berg, who died on September 30 of last year, preceding her husband by a little less than a year.

In Illinois Mr. Muller engaged in farming and was an active member of the Farmers Grain Elevator Ass'n. In February of 1907 he came to Holland to live, and organized the Standard Milling & Groc. Co., one of the city's most successful concerns. He was the principal stockholder in this business and was active unto the end as a director. For many years he held office of V. P. Treas. and during recent years and until his death he was treasurer. He was also director of the Muller-Houseman Company of Grand Rapids, manufacturers of flavoring extracts.

In Illinois Mr. Muller held a number of public offices such as school board member and member of county boards. He was also director of the telephone company there and was very active generally in community affairs. During his residence in Holland he was a member of the Fourth Reformed church.

There were ten children of whom two died at the age of two. The eight children who survive are: Rev. C. Muller, pastor of the Fourth Reformed church of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Elizabeth Kuiper, Misses Dena, Bertilda and Margaret of Holland; John E. of Grand Rapids, Rendert and Martha of Holland.

The funeral will be held Thursday at two o'clock from the home and at 2:30 from the Fourth Reformed church, Rev. Heemstra of Holland and Rev. J. M. Lumkes of Englewood, Chicago officiating. Interment will take place in Pilgrim Home cemetery.

MISS ELLA BALGOOYEN PASSES AWAY ON TUESDAY MORNING

After an illness of less than two weeks Miss Ella Balgooyen, died early Tuesday morning at her home at the corner of River Avenue and Ninth street. Miss Balgooyen was taken ill with pneumonia a week ago last Thursday. The disease soon assumed a critical form, and for several days the patient had been in extreme danger.

Miss Balgooyen was 36 years old. She was born in Grand Haven and was educated in the public schools there. Later she took a business course at the McLaughlin Business University at Grand Rapids, and on her graduation she worked in the Haven which is no longer in existence. Grand Haven which is no longer in existence.

Sixteen years ago she assumed her position as bookkeeper at the West Michigan Furniture factory, which position she has occupied ever since. She was a business woman of unusual ability and had the highest respect of her associates both because of her work and because of her charming personality. During the sixteen years of her residence in Holland she won a large number of friends.

The funeral will take place in Grand Haven, at the home of Miss Balgooyen's uncle Jurrin Ball, 215 South Fourth street, at 2:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon. The body will be taken to Grand Haven Wednesday, and until three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon an opportunity will be given to friends to view the remains at the home, corner of River and Ninth. Rev. P. C. Cheff, pastor of Hope church, will officiate at the funeral in Grand Haven. The deceased is survived by her mother.

Friends who wish to attend the funeral in Grand Haven will be furnished automobile transportation. All such should apply to J. S. Dykstra, Citz. Phone 1267 and Bell 27. The pall bearers will be from among her associates at the West Michigan Furniture Company.

POLICE DEPARTMENT MAKES RULES FOR AUTO DRIVERS

Now that the new traffic ordinance is in force in Holland, the police department has drawn up a set of regulations for autoists in accordance with the new ordinance. These regulations are for the guidance of the public and drivers are asked to become familiar with them and live up to them. Here they are:

In parking, always set car at an angle of from 35 to 40 degrees.

Hour parking is to be enforced against all those that have been in the habit of having their cars parked all day on business streets.

Drivers will be allowed to park cars at night where streets are lit up; must have tail light on residence streets, when parking.

Vehicles must drive in a careful manner.

Don't drive over 10 miles an hour past a school house, when there are children near. If you do, you are a careless driver.

Don't turn, stop, back or change your course without giving a plain signal by extending the hands. Hand held at right angle means, "I am going to stop;" hand held upward means, "I am going to turn to the right;" hand held downward means, "I am turning to the left."

All vehicles approaching a semi-phore for a left hand turn, unless signaled to proceed, immediately to turn, shall drive to the right a sufficient distance to allow the traffic in the rear to pass. Watch your semiphore, and when it turns to "go" you can then proceed.

Joy riding on 8th street where cars are in the habit of making the round turn at Corner of 8th and River, not allowed on Saturday nights.

Don't pass a street car when they are loading or unloading passengers. If you do you violate the law.

WOMAN RESCUED FROM DEATH IN WA- TERS OF GRAND

A chance discovery by E. P. Kinkema, of E. P. Kinkema & Co., at Grand Haven Wednesday morning prevented an almost certain drowning case. At the foot of Clinton

St. where he had gone with his wagon to receive fish for his firm, Mr. Kinkema discovered the body of a woman floating in the water.

The woman was floating face downward with the current and her clothing was preventing her from sinking. John Fisher was near at hand and the two men succeeded in reaching the woman and pulling her ashore. She was unconscious when taken out to the wharf, but the two rescuers succeeded in resuscitating her when she was identified as Mrs. Pearl Verhoeke. She asked to be taken to the home of her father. The two rescuers did not see the woman fall into the river but it is believed that she accidentally slipped from the wharf nearby and became unconscious before she could attract help to her. Her rescue was accomplished only by chance, and within a few moments she would have been past help.

TWENTY-SEVEN HUNTERS ARRESTED FOR SHOOTING TOO EARLY

There is an old saying, which was considered fitting to repeat to young people to spur them to get up early, which declared: "The early bird catches the worm." That old adage had a little change in phrasing when about 27 alleged early bird hunters from Grand Haven and Grand Rapids were notified to appear in the justice courts and answer to the charge of violating the state game laws by hunting before sun rise. The hunters were rounded up by Deputy Wardens Salisbury of Grand Haven and Homkes of Holland and the majority entered pleas of guilty and paid fines and costs which averaged about $14.15 each. At least five of the group however, protested against their arrest and declared they would fight the cases through the courts.

The difficulty with most of the alleged offenders seems to have been a misunderstanding concerning the local and standard time schedules. Local time, it will be remembered, is an hour faster than central standard time upon which laws are now based. Thus sun rise under the law, is not the same time under local, as interpreted, under the state game department.

Anyway the season opened auspiciously September 16. The marshes near Grand Haven were full of the hunters and the report of the morning's kill was good. There appear to be plenty of water fowl according to some of the hunters, and a number of good bags were brot in from the first day's hunt.

Deputy Homkes stated that if the game department had sent more deputies at least one hundred hunters could have been gathered in. He also stated that there were several violators in the vicinity of Holland but not as great a number as nearer the county seat. The Holland deputy was ordered to Grand Haven and as he could not be in two places at the same time it left the Holland hunters free to do about as they pleased. Grand Haven however has more marshes for duck hunting and the department deemed it wiser to send its deputies to the place where the most hunters could be found.

Below are a list of the alleged offenders.

Pleaded not guilty and will fight the case: Wm. Barrett, Niel Vander Pair, Edd Vander Last; Joe Verkerke and F. W. Hammel from Gr. Rapids. Pleaded guilty Peter Hamelink, H. Henderson, both of Grand Rapids.

Pleaded guilty from Grand Haven—Webber Hamm, Bert Burks, Orn Reuter, B. Blithouse, Will Dreese, Harry Dreese, Leasty Kinsley, John Dreese, Foster Bonema, John Strong Earl Hall, Fred Scanlon, Geo. Maltrom, Alto Tiety, G. J. IBener, John H. Ott, Henry Beukema, F. Russell, and L. Thomas.

MISSIONARIES LEFT SATURDAY MORNING FOR MISSION FIELD

The two lady missionaries, Miss Tena Holkeboer and Miss Jean Nienhuis took the 8:56 train this morning for Chicago enroute to San Francisco from where they will take the steamer Nanking for China.

More than 300 friends were on hand at the depot wishing them God-speed. The two missionaries expect to sail on Saturday, September 25.

Rexall stores of the country will conduct a straw vote on the presidential election, the balloting continuing from now until November. In Holland the ballot box is at the Central drug store, the local Rexall store.

Four years ago the straw vote in the Rexall stores correctly forecast the election of Wilson, showing the trend of the popular favor even in such doubtful states as New Hampshire and California. Telegraphic reports will be posted each day showing how the vote stands in various states.

INTERURBAN OFFICE ROBBED FOR THE SECOND TIME

About a month ago the Holland Interurban ticket office was robbed of $80 and since that time a heavy padlock has been put on the front door.

Friday night a thief also entered the rear part of the Holland Interurban and took $115 from the till. The theft was discovered by ticket agent Gerald Pierson when he turned to the ticket window after having taken care of some baggage that had arrived on a passenger from Grand Rapids.

Officer Wagner chased a suspicious-looking character through the alley back of the interurban office, altho the theft in the office proper was not discovered until afterward.

TURN IN BILLS TO HOLLAND FAIR NOW

The officials of the Holland Fair Association announced Saturday that all those who have bills against the fair should turn them in immediately without a day's delay. The association wants to clear the decks right away and people who want their money should not delay sending bills. All those who owe the fair are also asked to send checks immediately.

FIRST GUN OF G. O. P. CAMPAIGN TO BOOM HERE

The first gun of the Republican national campaign will boom in Holland on Wednesday night when the voters of Holland will have the opportunity to hear one of the best speakers who will come to Michigan during the national campaign. The Republican committee was notified this morning that Senator Failey of Iowa had been assigned to Holland for September 22.

Arrangements were at once commenced for securing the Women's Literary Club rooms for tonight when the first big Republican rally of the campaign will be held.

The women members of the party and all women voters of the city are expected and included in the invitation extended by the committee to hear the senator from Iowa. The speaker will devote his time to a discussion of the policies of the party which are playing the leading part in the campaign for Harding and Coolidge. He will undoubtedly have something to say as to the league of nations and a number of other questions of national as well as political interest. The coming of Senator Failey will serve to liven up the national campaign in this city and the surrounding territory.

The republican county committee is well organized for the campaign this year, and no effort will be spared to put Ottawa's Republican vote well over the normal majority mark, which has always prevailed in national elections. Holland has a number of good meetings ahead and the Iowa senator who opened the campaign at Grand Haven Tuesday will speak in Holland this evening.

MISSIONARY RECEIVES A MONEY GIFT

A family reunion was held on Monday at Cloverdale farm the home of Peter Nienhuis of North Holland. The gathering was in the form of a surprise on Miss Jean Nienhuis who will leave in a few days for the Mission field in China.

The afternoon was spent in games and merry making and many kodaks were in evidence. A bounteous supper was served on the lawn after which the family gathered in the living room for an informal gathering.

FIRST DAY AT HOPE COLLEGE SHOWS BIG GAIN

With students in attendance from all sections of the United States and from about half a dozen foreign countries as well, Hope College opened its year's work on Wednesday morning with public exercises in Williams chapel. Dr. William Dayton Brown, corresponding secretary of the Educational Board of the Reformed Church of America, delivered the opening address. The new instructors were presented to the students and the lessons for the first day's work were assigned. Thursday morning the regular college exercises began with chapel services, followed by the usual class periods.

The figures are not yet all in as to the number of students that will be at college this year, but the indications are that the enrollment will be the largest in years. The enrollment will exceed 500. Several more students are expected to arrive during the next few days.

The faculty this year, including the members of the faculty of the School of Music, is composed of 29 members. The new members are: Rose M. Pope, instructor in French; Herbert G. Ozanne, A. M., Latin; Thomas E. Weimers, A. M., B. D., Greek; Helen Bell, English and History; Mrs. Edith Walvoord, Matron; James E. Weid, Violin. The year that opened Wednesday is the fifty-fifth academic year at Hope College. Before the end of the week the activities of the college will be in full swing. Some of the classes are exceptionally large and they have to be divided into sections to accommodate all who wish to take certain branches of study.

THREE ARE SENTENCED IN ALLEGAN COURT

Judge O. S. Cross held a short session of circuit court at Allegan and pronounced sentences upon three prisoners. Wm. Marshall of Otsego, arrested for stealing a bicycle in Saugatuck Aug. 21 was sent to Ionia for a term of from six months to two years, with a recommendation of the former. Ralph Bides of Fennville and Thos. Woodford of Montana, charged with the breaking into the Shiffert store in Fennville, were each sentenced to Ionia for two to fifteen years, two years being recommended. Marshall was the fellow who poked a hole thru the wall of the jail last week and let Bides and Woodford escape.

EXCHANGE CLUB RESUMES MEETINGS

The exchange club members resumed their bi-weekly meetings on Wednesday noon at the summer recess. Charles E. Drew was the speaker of the day and gave a very instructive and entertaining address on the peculiar relation between the city of Washington and the Government, particularly as regards the 50-50 taxation plan which has given rise to so much controversy the past few years. Mr. Drew traced this relation from the time Washington was designated as the nation's capital until the present time, giving the details of the new taxation bill which was passed largely thru Congressman Mape's efforts as Chairman of the District of Columbia Committee, which bill provides that the District shall pay 60% instead of 50% of the taxes as heretofore. The club decided to send two delegates to the National Exchange Club convention to be held at Columbus, Ohio, on Sept. 27th and 28th.

ALPENA ROAD FAMILY LOOKING FOR LOST SON

After an absence from home of eleven days, Frank Nelis, sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelis, living on the Alpena Road, is being anxiously sought for by his family, the mother especially being greatly worried about her lost son. Young Nelis left home in a huff a week ago last Friday, and since then the family has not heard from him. Shortly after his disappearance the family gave the case into the hands of the police and the local department has been making investigations but without result. The family hoped to find the young man without resort to publicity, but the search having proved fruitless, they appealed to the newspapers Monday to help them locate the boy.

Young Nelis' temper was aroused on the morning of September 10 because of a scolding he received in connection with a relatively unimportant matter. Nothing was thought of it at first that he did not appear at dinner time, but when his absence became prolonged the family came alarmed. It is believed that he is not far from Holland as he did not have more than two dollars in money on his person when he left, and it has been ascertained that he did not go by boat to Chicago.

The mother of the boy is extremely anxious about him, and this little newspaper story is in the nature of an appeal from her to him to come back home.

The family moreover is offering a reward of $25 to anyone who can tell them of the whereabouts of the young man.

Young Nelis is about 5 feet ten, and has an abundance of dark hair, wears a dark coat, dark cap and brown trousers, blue shirt and brown shoes when he left home. He has never been away from home for any length of time before.

FOUR TOWNSHIPS IN

OTTAWA MAKE GAINS

Most cities and villages in Ottawa county showed a healthy growth in the past decade according to an announcement of the census bureau. Ottawa county now has a population of 47,643, a gain of 2,342. Population of cities and villages with gain or loss follows: Holland 12,166, gain 1,676; Grand Haven, 7,205, gain 1,349; Zeeland 2,275, gain 293; Spring Lake, 978, gain 176; Ocoopersville 914 gain 100; Fruitport (in Muskegon and Ottawa counties) 321 loss 9; Lisbon (in Ottawa only) 19, loss 4.

Ottawa county townships: Alledale 1,307, loss 182; Blendon, 1730, gain 30; Chester including part of Lisbon village, 1,358, loss 101; Crookery, 1,239, loss 148; Georgetown 2,385 gain 55; Grand Haven, 866, gain 23; Holland, 2,962, loss 596; Jamestown, 1887, loss 107; Olive 1,667, loss 413; Park 851; Polkton, including Coopersville village, 2,344, loss 100; Robinson, 794, loss 105; Spring Lake, including Spring Lake village and part of Fruitport village 2,091, gain 171; Tallmadge 1,226, loss 116; Wright, 1,474 loss 185; Zeeland 1,816, loss 53.

DATES GIVEN FOR GRIDIRON SCHEDULE AT HOPE COLLEGE

Coach Jack Schouten of the new forming Hope College football eleven has announced the following schedule for the coming season. Besides those mentioned are two games which will probably be arranged with Ferris Institute at Big Rapids and one with Olivet. One of these two games will be played at Hope's gymnasium.

October 9—Hillsdale College, there.
October 16—Alma college here.
October 23—Grand Rapids Junior College, there.
October 30—Western State Normal, Kalamazoo, there.
November 11—Kalamazoo College, there.
November 20—Mt. Pleasant Normal, here.

Practices held this week give indication that Hope's gridiron warriors will be developed into a fairly powerful aggregation. A remarkable turnout for the strenuous game is reported.

Hope College has the strongest presentation of green gridiron material out for practice that has been out for years. Out of this untrained timber, Coach Schouten is patiently endeavoring to build a wall which will stand the poundings of all M. I. A. A. teams and come out victorious.

"I may not do it this year, but if all these men stick with me, look out for Hope in the next two years," was the word of Coach Schouten on Saturday night.

A fair example of what the physical director has to work with is shown by one husky man who turned out for the first tryout Thursday evening. When the ball was passed to him he got it away from him with a shot-put exertion.

"It's the first time I've ever had my hands on a football," he told the coach.

There are 45 men out for practice now and the average weight will be about 165 pounds.

THIRTY-NINE EXHIBITORS BRING THEIR WARES

As has already been stated in a previous issue the business men of Ottawa county and especially from Holland and Zeeland did their share in making a success of the Holland fair last week.

Thirty-nine of them brought the best they had in their different establishments to the exhibition, and many of the displays were very unique, and all were of a substantial nature.

Automobile displays were especially in evidence, and all other lines were well represented this year.

The following are the business men who displayed in the art hall:

Austin Harrington, John Rutgers, Du Mez Bros.; Van Ark Furn. Co.; Phoenix Cheese Co., Zeeland; Meyer Music House; DeVries & Dornbos; National Starch Co., Dem. Mazola Cooking Oil and Caro Syrup; E. J. Pruim, music, Zeeland and Grand Haven; Scott Lumber Co.; Holland Furnace Co.; Lokker-Rutgers Co.; C. Pieper & Son; Hayden-Kardux Auto Co., Chevrolet and Oakland; O. J. Hiler for DeVries & Dornbos, music; Winstrom Electric Co.; J. A. Brouwer Co.; D. B. Thompson, Oldsmobile; G. Cook & Co.; Tayon & Lake (outside Co., demonstrating art needle); Henry Krakker; Holland Lumber & Supply Co.; Peoples Garage, Nash and Reo cars; G. A. Lacey.

The following are those who exhibited in the Getz building: Corner Hdw. Co.; A. Kronmeyer, Presto Lite Battery; C. V. Schnaar, demonstrating Brisco cars.

The following are those who displayed in tents and spaces on the Dord cars; Brink & DeLeeuw, Hudson and Essex Cars; City Garage, Buick; Holland Auto & Specialty Co., Maxwell cars; Weller Nursery; Bolhuis Lumber Co., demonstrating Proslate houses and garages and Kellestone; Isaac Van Dyke, farm machinery, Zeeland; Bouwmaster, farm machinery, Holland; Van Hoven-Veerke, farm machinery, Holland; Vanden Berg Bros., dem. St. Clair oils and greases; Holleman De Weerd, Ford Exhibit; Venhuizen Auto Co., Dodge and Studebaker cars.

HOLLAND PIONEER DIES AT THE AGE OF SEVENTY-SIX

One of Holland's early pioneers died Sunday morning, Sept. 19 when Mrs. Hein Van Lente passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Lugers, R. R. 10, at the age of 76 years. Mrs. Van Lente was a victim of paralysis from which she has been suffering during the past 10 weeks. Her maiden name was Jennie Steketee. She was born in the Province of Zeeland, Netherlands, January 24, 1844, and ten years later arrived in this country, at the time when Holland was merely a struggling village.

She was married 56 years ago to Hein Van Lente by the founder of Holland, Dr. A. C. Van Raalte; she saw the city grow from a small village to its present size, and resided in Holland and vicinity for 66 years.

Mrs. Van Lente is survived by her husband, Hein Van Lente of Holland; five sons: Dick, Van Lente, Lincoln, Neb.; Bert of Two Rivers, Wis. and Gerrit of Oskaloosa, Ia.; John K. and J. Henry of Holland, and three daughters, Mrs. Wm. Lugers, of Holland; Mrs. John Greving of Holland, and Mrs. Richard De Zeeuw of East Lansing, Mich.

Twenty-one grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, and four sisters, Mrs. I. De Jongh, Mrs. T. Westling, and Mrs. H. Te Slegte of Holland, and Mrs. H. Van den Belt of Fremont also survive her.

A short funeral service was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Lugers R. R. 10 at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, Rev. Mr. Bruinooge, officiating. At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon services were held at the Trinity Reformed church, Rev. C. P. Dame and Rev. S. Vander Werf officiating. Interment was made in the Pilgrim Home cemetery.

HOLLAND BOYS APPEAR IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Considerable rivalry has thus far this season developed between two independent baseball teams, namely Charlotte and Allegan, in fact this became so keen, that a special game was called to be played at Ramona Park at Grand Rapids.

So close was the contest Saturday that 10 innings had to be played, the final score being made by Charlotte.

Holland can take some credit for this close contest, as practically the entire team was made up of Holland players.

In the Allegan lineup appear the names of Batema, ss; Shaw 2b; Ashley C. F.; Woldring 1f; Spriggs c.

Judging from the reports the Holland boys held up their end as usual Spriggs at least coming thru with one score. The final score was as follows:

Charlotte...0001010001-3

WAS IT HAUNTED HOLLAND FURNACE?

Is the corner of the Art-hall at the Holland fair haunted? That is what we would like to know, or was Andrew Klomparsen cozily ensconced in a Holland furnace?

In the northwest corner of the big exhibition building of the Holland fair, a low deep mournful voice might have been heard coming from apparently nowhere, and saying in a monotone "Holland Furnaces Make Warm Friends, Holland Furnaces Make Warm Friends."

Upon close inspection it was discovered that the voice emanated from the door of a large furnace that the company had on exhibition.

The voice was not conducive to warm friendship however, as it sent a cold chill down the backs of some of the most superstitious.

Some of the brave ones edged up a little closer for a thorough investigation and not a few thought they had the phenomenon discovered in person of Andrew Klomparsen whom they stated A. H. Landwehr had imprisoned in the big heater until after the fair.

This was however exploded when the size of the fire pot and the proportions of Andrew's physique were compared.

A real discovery was made when Cornelis Dornbos of De Vries and Dornbos was seen sneaking from behind the big sheet iron enclosure that surrounds the furnace.

One spectator ventured to stick his head into the mouth of the fire pot and found upon the grates a whirling phonograph record with a repeating instrument attached and during the three days of the fair without intermission the well modulated voice of A. H. Landwehr recorded by the Columbia Phonograph Co. might be heard through the furnace mouth, saying "Holland furnaces make warm friends, Holland furnaces make warm friends."

PASTOR RESENTS SNAKE CHARMER AT THE FAIR

The target for many hot shots by Rev. Daniel Zwier of the Maple-av. Christian Reformed church. He declared that he saw nothing good in the "snake charmer" or the "Indian Fortune teller" and that vile language and gambling overruled the good that could be obtained from visiting the place.

HOLLAND BEATS PLAINWELL IN THE OPENING GAME

In the opening game of the football season Saturday, Holland high defeated Plainwell by the score of 14 to 3. In the first few moments of play Holland found that they were opposed to a team of unexpected strength. Captain De Pree of the Holland team lost the toss and Plainwell chose to receive and to defend the west goal. Houtman kicked off for Holland and the Plainwell man was downed on their own 40 yard line. On straight line smash es Plainwell carried the ball to Holland's thirty-five yard line, from where quarterback New scored Plainwell's only points by a pretty drop kick. Holland so far, had had no opportunity to have the ball in their possession. Plainwell kicked off, after the scoring of the drop and Holland received. Holland by some straight football and line smashes carried the ball to Plainwell's ten yard line but lost the ball on a fumble.

Plainwell was forced to punt on the fourth down. Holland receiving the ball on the 50 yard line, by line smashes Holland forced the ball down the field to Plainwell's 5 yard line, when Vanden Brink went over for Holland's first touchdown. Van Duren kicked goal. Score at the end of first half 7 to 3. In the second half Holland played straight football and played a fine offensive game. Only one touchdown was scored by Holland, Van Duren quarterback going over the goal in the third quarter and also kicking goal. Fumbling by Holland cost them at least two touchdowns.

The team this year is light but scrappy and full of pep. With a few more weeks of practice the team will be in fine condition to meet South High here from Grand Rapids.

Substitutions — Steggerda for Knutson; Van Raalte for Yonkman; Referee M. Irving. Headlinesman Drew. Time of quarters—12 minutes.

COMES NEAR BEING A MILLION DOLLAR BANK

The latest statement of the Fruit Growers State bank of Saugatuck, shows total resources of $934,787.73. This is very close to a realization of the ambition of its officers, expressed some time ago—and then considered chimerical—to "make it a million dollar bank." Such a bank in a town of 526 population speaks volumes for the prosperity and the thrift of the people of Saugatuck.

War Macaroni.

Somebody is complaining of the size of the war macaroni. We have always preferred the 44-calibre kind to the sort they call vermicelli, as Samivel Weller would say.

"Playing Hockey."
"To play hockey" originally meant to hide around the corner. Hoekje was the old Dutch word meaning "a little corner."—Gas Logic.
